CONSTRUCTION

Agriculture Intern

Providence Construction is looking for leaders to join our team this summer as an Agriculture Intern! Are you a team player, task-oriented and appreciate the attention to detail? Do you have the will to win, consider yourself adaptable to changing circumstances, and the determination to get the job done? If this describes you, then a Providence Construction internship is a great opportunity to learn and develop your skills in the agriculture industry.

The Agriculture Intern will assist the farm crew in all aspects of routine animal care and general farm tasks to ensure the welfare/well-being of the animals. Tasks include but are not limited to farm sanitation, animal removal, and animal pasture rotation.

During your summer with Providence Construction, you will work alongside some of the brightest minds in Agriculture, and you'll have the opportunity to experience our unique culture, grow your social and professional network, and interact with our Leadership Team. This is a 10-12 week summer internship, which will begin in May/June 2021 and will wrap up in August. All candidates must be able to work full-time hours in Clayton, NC for the entirety of the internship to be considered.
